

Literacy How-to: Linking What We Know to What We Do

October is Dyslexia Awareness Month

FREE Opportunities for Educators and Parents

How can teachers ensure that all children, including millions impacted by dyslexia—the most common type of reading disability—learn to read and write proficiently? To close the literacy achievement gap, support measures must be embedded in schools and include all stakeholders—administrators, teachers, parents, and children.

---

Tuesday, October 28, 2014, 2-3 p.m.

Every Child Reading: Linking Knowledge and Practice to Support School Systems

Dr. Margie Gillis, President and Founder of Literacy How, will discuss:

- Supporting school leadership
- Using data transparently for accountability
- Coordinating a multi-tier system of support
- Providing embedded professional development based on best practices
- Engaging parents and families

Click on the webinar title for more information and to register.

This free one-hour webinar is sponsored by Learning Ally, a national nonprofit providing resources, training, and technology for teachers and schools.

---

ACT NOW! Space limited.

Thursday, November 20, 2014, 5:30 pm Registration, 6-7:30 pm Workshop

Decoding Evaluations: Appropriate Reading Evaluations and How to Understand Them

Wallace Memorial Library, Branford/Stony Creek, CT

Have you ever wondered, "What assessments and recommendations should an appropriate reading evaluation include?" or "What does this evaluation tell me?" If so, you need to join us!

Dr. Margie Gillis will answer these questions and many more.

Click here for more information. Click here to register.

This free workshop is presented by Decoding Dyslexia-CT and Smart Kids with Learning Disabilities.

Link to Resources Galore!

Click here to connect to communities of parents, experts and others offering support and solutions for people with dyslexia.

www.literacyhow.com

203-239-7323

Send us an Email

Our Mission is to EMPOWER TEACHERS to ensure that every child learns to read by third grade.

100 Broadway 2nd Floor | North Haven, CT 06473 US

